

Artist in a Week

SMUS summer camp with Paul O'Brien.

About the Camp

This camp is designed for young musicians, singers and songwriters who are serious about becoming artists. There will be an expectation that you have some experience in playing music, or singing, and have an interest in learning about the aspects involved in becoming an artist. The week will consist of songwriting workshops, performance techniques, and opportunities to record and perform in public. There will also be a chance to learn tips about promotion and actually getting your music heard.

When: Aug 8th-12th 2011

Where: SMUS Richmond Rd
Victoria

Time: 9am-4pm

Other: Open to ages 12-17
